

Horatio Board of Education met in regular monthly meeting on February 12, 2018 in the high school library.

The FFA presented to the board their activities and upcoming events.

The board and teacher of the year, Traci Lyon and Lindy Bowens, were honored with an appreciation dinner.

The board accepted bid of $206,095.00 from Seamless Systems for K-4 elementary roof and bid for baseball light units @$60. They approved the 2019-20 proposed budget and policy additions, amendments and deletions recommended by Arkansas School Boards Association and renewed the model policy with ASBA.

Board members accepted resignations from Beverly Chandler and Pam Click and hired Gayla Youngblood as instructional facilitator/dyslexia coordinator.

Reports were given by high school principal, Stephanie Rowe and superintendent, Lee Smith. Routine reports and financial statements were approved.
