

Horatio Board of Education met in regular session on Monday, January 11, 2016 in FCCLA room in high school.

The board voted to renew the superintendent's contract for 2 years, 2016-17 & 2017 -18. They also voted to hire Terry Maye, as additional agriculture instructor for the 2016-17 school year.

FBLA, FCCLA, and FFA officers and members give report on activities and community projects for their organization. Opening and closing ceremonies was presented to board and patrons in attendance by the FFA team and officers.

Shelly Crenshaw gave board an overview of the dyslexia process and Tammy McAlister discussed the PARCC test scores for elementary and high school.

Board voted to renew school board/educators legal liability insurance policy with Bancorp South. Routine reports were given and approved.