

Horatio Board of Education met in regular session on Monday, February 8, 2016 in the FCCLA room at high school.

Daniel Dunn, band director and several students presented accomplishments, awards, and answered questions for board members. They still have several competitions to compete in this school year.

The board approved bids for safety enhancements at the elementary buildings and playground equipment. They also accepted bid from Seamless Systems to replace roof on elementary cafeteria.

Board members adopted recommended changes by ASBA for all previously adopted policies, cheerleading constitution changes, accepted contract for hay, and resolution for look back measurement for affordable care act.

The board accepted resignations of Chrystal Whisenhunt and Charity Shope.

Board members were treated to a dinner for board appreciation by Chef Justin Mills, Teri Cribb, and several students.
