

Horatio Board of Education met in regular session on Monday, May 9, 2016 in the administration building. The board voted to hire Laurie Kirkpatrick-kindergarten teacher, Hannah Topor-4th grade teacher, Micah Cassady-high school math, and David Bennett-head football coach. They accepted resignations from Leah Beall and Raylene Young. They voted to give yearbook advisors a stipend of $500 for high school and $250 for elementary.

They approved 2016-17 special education budget, school choice student list, and continue student insurance with Dwight Jones Agency through the 2017-18 school years.

According to the federal price calculator for lunch prices, they voted to increase lunches to $2.25 for the 2016-17 school years. They also approved routine reports and minutes.
