

NOVEMBER 2016 BOARD MEETING

Horatio Board of Education met in regular session on Monday, November 14th in the administration building with all members in attendance.

The board approved a $500 bonus for all employees. Board members accepted resignation of Richard Sowell and voted to extend contract of Tammie Dobbins as interim elementary counselor for the remainder of the 2016-17 school year.

They approved attendance policy for extra-curricular participation and the change to the drug testing procedure. Routine monthly reports and minutes of October meetings were approved.

Principals, Stephanie Rowe and Susan Nelson gave monthly report on accomplishments, activities, and upcoming events in their buildings.
