

Horatio Board of Education met in regular session on Monday, August 10th. The board voted to contract Justin Mills, consultant with K-12 Culinary Connection for the 2015-16 school year. They voted to create highway bus route pick-ups when emergencies arise, ex: weather, electricity, water, etc. The board granted transfer of five students to DeQueen and accepted four students to Horatio. They also voted to deny any transfers after September 15th and January 15th each year.

The board accepted resignation of James Lindsey and approve routine reports.
